WORKSHOP: Conducting Key Informant Interviews sponsored by the Enrichment Program of the Boston Nutrition Obesity Research Center

June 26, 2017 from 1:00-4:00PM

WORKSHOP: Conducting Key Informant Interviews

In this workshop, you will receive training on how to conduct effective key informant interviews. You will learn how to obtain the data you need from the interviews, the tasks and traits of a good interviewer, and how to handle challenging interviewees. We will also discuss conducting interviews by phone, and conducting interviews with children. There will be ample time for practice conducting interviews with feedback.

Location: TBD, Tufts University Medical Campus

Registration is required. Please email dgibson@bu.edu if you would like to be placed on the wait list.
